

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the unenforcement of your rules regarding equal time. If this program is aired, Sinclair should be required to give equal time for a Pro Kerry program for the same amount of time.

This is the same company that would not let their affiliates carry the Nightline program showing the military personnel who died in Iraq because it was "too political". This is the worst company using the public airwaves, that you are supposed to regulate. They should be warned of their violation of the public trust and punished if they fail to adhere to this.

If you fail to act, those employees in your agency who fail the public should be held responsible. Thank you for your consideration
